containers
1. Garbage containers shall be waterproof and equipped with tight fitting lids suitable for receiving and holding without leaking or escape of odors all garbage which is produced created or accumulated upon the premises.

2. The storage of solid waste and recycling containers shall be in compliance with all local state and federal health and safety codes.

Disposal Frequency
3. Solid waste, recycling and organics shall be taken to a state approved facility only.

4. Frequency of disposal shall be often enough so as not to create public health or safety hazards.

Transport
5. When transporting solid waste and recycling materials must be secured in such a way that prevents loss of material on any roadway or private property.

6. Self haulers must comply with all local state and federal laws rules and regulations as they relate to transporting solid waste. Republic Services is the only hauler allowed to haul trash, recycling and organics in the City. No other company can be hired to haul trash, recycling or organics for hauling or disposal.

Hazardous Waste
7. Private citizens may haul in small quantity personal household hazardous waste HHW to the local HHW facilities as long as they comply with all local state and federal laws rules and regulations governing the transportation of HHW.

8. Commercial Industrial permitees who have hazardous waste to dispose of may qualify as a small or large quantity generator and will need to either 1.) Hire a household hazardous waste contractor to dispose of hazardous waste materials or 2.) Contact the California Department of Toxic Substances Control to become permitted to haul the materials to the appropriate collection disposal facility.

State Regulations and Compliance
9. Self hauler must meet all state regulations for diversion, health and safety, sanitary sewer runoff, and reporting requirements for the following (but not limited to): AB 939 Integrated Waste Management Act, AB 341 Mandatory Commercial Recycling, and AB 1826 Mandatory Commercial Organics Diversion.

10. Self hauler must submit a Recycling Plan which shall include information on method of transportation, storage and diversion for trash, recycling and organics.

Indemnification and Hold Harmless
11. Self haul permitees shall indemnify and hold harmless the City of Fairfield its Officers’ employees’ agents and volunteers from and against any and all liability loss expense including reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees or claims for injury or damages caused by or resulting from the negligent or intentional acts or omissions of permittee its officers agents or employees rights.

12. The issuance of this permit in no way implies that the permittee has any right permit or identification as anything other than a personal refuse hauler in the City of Fairfield.