Gone for Good hosts America Recycles Day 2017

Fairfield, California (Wednesday, November 1, 2017) — America Recycles Day 2017 on Wednesday, November 15 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at 2860 Cordelia Road, Fairfield, is hosted by Gone for Good and United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay in partnership with the City of Fairfield, Republic Services, Solano County Water Agency, Rising Sun Energy, Renewal by Anderson, KUIC, and Keep America Beautiful.

America Recycles Day 2017 includes:

- Free confidential paper shredding, e-waste and used clothing drop-off. Open to all Fairfield residents, businesses, and nonprofits
- Open House hosted by United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay. Tour their art studio and facility, meet the staff that make the monthly paper shredding events possible, and learn about their amazing programs
- Citywide recycling information for Fairfield residents and businesses
- Drop off residential batteries, pick up used oil kits
- A display of the latest in energy efficient windows for your home
- Free energy conservation items for your home such as lights, water heater blankets, and window insulation
- Water-saving devices such as low-flow showerheads and nozzles. Learn about all rebates for residents who remove their lawns

On America Recycles Day, Republic Services buy-back center will donate five-cents per pound of aluminum cans redeemed to United Cerebral Palsy of North Bay. The buy-back center is located at 2901 Industrial Court.

America Recycles Day, a program of Keep America Beautiful, is a nationally recognized day dedicated to promoting and celebrating recycling in the United States. Thousands of events are held every year on November 15 to help educate students, friends, and neighbors. Go online to take the pledge at www.americarecyclesday.org or #berecycled.

Please check the City of Fairfield's website for more information www.fairfield.ca.gov/Recycling or call the City of Fairfield's Recycling Hotline (707) 428-7489.
