City of Fairfield seeks applications for the Rockville Hills Regional Park Citizens Advisory Committee

Fairfield, California (Tuesday, July 2, 2019)—The City of Fairfield is accepting applications for the Rockville Hills Regional Park Citizens Advisory Committee. One seat is vacant, with a term expiring December 31, 2022. Applicants must be residents of Solano County. The mayor will appoint the committee member with the approval of the City Council.

Applications are available at the City Clerk's Office at Fairfield City Hall, 1000 Webster Street, 4th floor. Download an application, request an application by mail or email by contacting Deputy City Clerk Yessika Dominguez at 707-428-7402. Completed applications may be submitted via mail, email, or in person.

The City is not responsible for lost or misdirected applications. Applications received after the deadline, including postmarks, will not be accepted. A timely filed application will remain on file for one year if the applicant is not appointed as a commissioner. The application deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursday, August 1, 2019.

Background/Responsibilities:

The Rockville Hills Regional Park Citizens Advisory Committee is a five-person committee created to provide the City with feedback and input regarding major decisions affecting Rockville Hills Regional Park. Committee members must live in Solano County, and three of them must live in Fairfield. Committee members must have three years of either professional or volunteer experience in public and open space and recreation endeavors or a unique familiarity and knowledge of Rockville Hills Regional Park. Committee members will be selected based on their ability to fairly represent the multitude of recreation users and special interest groups that use the Park. No one user or special interest group shall be over represented.

The Committee works closely with City Public Works Department staff and has responsibility to ensure the objectives of the Management Plan and the ordinance governing the Park are adhered to; advise, inform, and make recommendations to the Public Works staff on major issues, not specific to the Management Plan and/or ordinance governing the Park; conduct visitor surveys to determine user satisfaction (City staff shall approve all survey instruments prior to their use); establish and continue a dialog with park users to keep abreast of their interests and viewpoints about major issues in the park and to garner their input on planned major projects; and exchange ideas with Public Works staff on long-term preservation and enhancement strategies for the Park.
