Resources for those in need

Fairfield, California (Thursday, July 11, 2019) - The City of Fairfield will co-host the Homeless Outreach Partnership Event (HOPE) Community Resource Fair on Saturday, August 3, 2019 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at BayNorth Church, 2100 Pennsylvania Avenue, Fairfield, Ca.

The Fairfield HOPE Community Resource Fair is a FREE one-stop shop to provide services and support for individuals and families who are experiencing or at risk of homelessness. The event is hosted in partnership with the City of Fairfield's Quality of Life Division, Fairfield Police Department Homeless Intervention Team, BayNorth Church, Solano Dream Center, and County of Solano.

Attendees will have access to a diverse selection of community resources, programs, and organizations. Free planned resources include: food, haircuts, clothes, dental and medical screenings, family entertainment, legal and financial advice, education, employment, health, substance abuse, veterans, transportation, and other general community services.

For additional information please contact Mary Ann Dawkins, Police social services coordinator, at (707) 428-7599 or mdawkins@fairfield.ca.gov, or visit the official Facebook event page at: <https://bit.ly/2HV5I2n>.
